

STUDENT APPEALS

The Newfoundland and Labrador English School District provides the right of appeal for all parents or caregivers who feel that their child has been significantly affected by a decision. The following chart outlines the basic steps in the appeal process.

